109

By F. M. L.

The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Chung Chi College, has 109 on its mailing list. No one can explain such things.

An interesting book listed is a work on "The Idea of a University in East and West." This follows in somewhat different form a proposal to put a university in Hawaii where students of the two worlds could meet.

This commentary discusses the idea, we suppose, and several noted educators comment on its validity.

SMALL WORLD — Backstage conversation with Mrs. H. L. Cliburn, mother of the famous pianist, showed Tuesday night the Cliburns knew well the late Tom Henderson, brother of John B. Henderson, of Cameron, in earlier days in McGregor.

Van was greeting a host of autograph seekers and Baylor friends following his Tuesday night concert at Waco Hall. The magnificent pianist drew a standing ovation from a packed house of 2600.

He is a soft-spoken young man of about 32 who is one of the world's best piano virtuosos. He has been playing piano concerts since he was four. His winning of the Moscow competition in 1958 catapulted the Kilgore artist to world fame. His keyboard command is incredible and his presence, on and off stage, is unassuming. Van Cliburn is poised far beyond the popular image of the highly talented musician. Truly a gentleman.

Van's parents accompany him on tour. She is his manager. And until 1951, she was his teacher. She had studied under top flight piano teachers in the East, but her parents would not allow her to follow a concert career. She teaches still.

Van began studying in New York after 1951. He won a length of competitions which was climaxed in Moscow in 1958. New York gave him a ticker tape parade, the only musician so honored, and his stature as a painist and a legend was made.

Honors what they are, Van Cliburn views friendship as highly as his art. This is part of his great talent, communicating through music.

Like great artists, he stays short time in each concert city. Van and his parents flew to Washington Tuesday night where he was to play at the White House Wednesday night.

He was home Tuesday night. And perhaps it was our imagination, but he played even more magnificently.

ORIENTAL ART — Col. James Nielsen, linguist and art collector, will exhibit part of his collection of oriental art at a Friends of the Library program, 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 17. Above he shows a design on pounded bark - cloth. High school students will be excused at 3:15 p.m. Wednesday to attend the program.

Bigger Exposition . . . .

Scout Show Set April 27

A bigger Scout Exposition is foreseen for Cameron this year, according to Scout Executive Bill Storey.

He said some 15 units already had plans for booths and exhibits in the April 27 Exposition at Cameron National Guard Armory.

The Exposition will be a combination of booth demonstrations and special stage shows, according to Tejas District Scouting leaders.

Tickets are now available from all Scout units in the Milam - Robertson - Falls County areas.

The District's goal is "to have every Cub, Scout and Explorer in the Tejas District a part of this great boys' show."

Robert K. Taylor, Tejas public relations chairman, of Rockdale, said advance ticket sales will help raise funds for unit treasuries, and "will also give the boys business training in handling money, and opportunities to meet and talk with strangers."

More than 200 visitors viewed the Scouting Exposition and gave about $300 to the program last year.

Show time will be from 3 to 9 p.m. Saturday, April 27.

Several Cameron Scout units are planning entries in the Exposition, Storey said.

Tickets will sell for 50 cents each.

The Tejas District includes Milam County and parts of Falls and Robertson Counties.

Dr. Bicker Cain, of Calvert, is in charge of the Exposition.

The board had interviewed one out of town applicant for the director's post prior to employing Matula. Three local men, including Matula, had previously turned down the post after considering it.

Board members are: E. A. Perrin, chairman; Monroe Fuchs, vice chairman; Miss Thornton, secretary; and James C. Camp, Albert Hajovsky, Porter Young, and Bill Burns, members.

Police Alert Follows Poison Death Of 9 Animals In Cameron

Police Chief John Shearin said repeated reports of dog poisoning in all sections of Cameron had caused concern that poisoned food was being distributed possibly from an automobile.

Chief Shearin said the first reports of dog poisoning was last week and the incidents had increased, principally in the northeast section of town. Nine dogs have died of poisoning in Cameron so far.

Shearin said the deaths appeared to have been caused by a strychnine poison. He asked that people be alert to anyone throwing food from a car and that they report the auto license number to the police department.

Chief Shearin said a conviction on animal poisoning was punishable by a penitentiary sentence.

City Okays $286,000 Plan For Cameron

LEADERSHIP REPORT SET FOR HOSPITAL

A number of community leaders will meet 4:30 p.m. Monday at Cameron Chamber director's room to consider leadership for a city-county fund drive for St. Edward Hospital.

Forrest Sapp, acting chairman during the selection of hospital drive leadership, told The Herald several names of community leaders had been raised in a meeting last Thursday afternoon with Sister Kostka, administrator of St. Edward Hospital.

A committee was named to contact nominees for general chairmanship and special gifts committee leadership. A report is expected Monday afternoon, Sapp said.

The St. Edward drive already has received several thousand dollars in contributions toward the $250,000 goal, Sister Kostka told the group last week. A total of $750,000 has already been pledged through the hospital Order and Hill-Burton funds.

Meeting with the St. Edward administrator were N. L. Caperton, James D. Camp, Albert Collins, Charles Kunz, Gene Smitherman, John B. Henderson, Jr., and Sapp.

Sapp said he was heading the Cameron United Fund this year and was not in consideration for leadership in the hospital drive.

CIF To Raise $20M For Part

A combination funding program has been approved by Cameron City Council, with support of $20,000 from Cameron Industrial Foundation, for a major North Cameron sewer-water program totaling $286,000.

A called meeting of the City Council 5:30 p.m. Friday with eleven directors of Cameron Industrial Foundation yielded the following decisions:

ONE—The Council voted unanimously to use $115,443 to $120,000 in city funds toward installation of an overhead water tower, loop sewer and waterlines which will serve 591 acres for sewerage purposes and about 100 acres water purposes in North Cameron. The commitment meant:

TWO—The City could accept a $126,600 grant from Housing and Urban Development toward construction of water mains, water tower and sewer system in an area both in and north of present city limits. This was added to:

THREE—A grant of $19,600 from Economic Development Agency for the engineering work being done by Walter Albritton, engineering consultant, of Dallas. And added to this:

FOUR—Cameron Industrial Foundation, Inc., committed for $20,000 to bring water and sewerline service to the North Cameron industrial sites, outside city limits.

Albritton explained in detail reasons for a broader second program. Previously, CIF, Inc., officials had asked the City to help in construction of adequate water and sewer service for any industrial plants on the North Cameron industrial park area.

Albritton said the original proposal for a water tower and service to the industrial sites along Southern Pacific would still have left inadequate water pressure and incomplete sewerage service in parts of North Cameron within the city limits.

He said water service in North Cameron was in need of tying together with a loop service. The proposal approved by the Council included loop service east and west of a new water tower linked to the present tower and an 8-inch water line to the industrial park.

591 ACRE SERVICE

The new sewerline service area will encompass all of North Cameron and land north to include the industrial park, a drainage area of about 591 acres.

The new water system would serve the area west of US 77 including the industrial area and residential areas to the south. Part of the area is not yet in the city limits, but officials agreed that sometime in the future the area would be developed with the basic services there and could be incorporated in the city limits.

Albritton pointed out the area seemed the natural one for Cameron to grow.

He commended the behind-scenes work of Mayor Bassel Wilson in pushing the federal grant portion of the funding. Albritton said such applications for HUD assistance take about two years. Work began on this project last fall.

Council motion approving the City's part of the action was made by Councilman R. W. Wells and seconded by John Hays. The vote was unanimous.

HOW FUNDED

E. A. Perrin, chairman of Cameron Urban Renewal Board and incoming mayor, said $50,000 of credits already planned for application as part of the city's 1 to 3 matching program could be used for the North Cameron program.

Councilmen discussed issuing revenue bonds totaling $40,000 or more or issuing time warrants subject to public petition, to make the city's portion of the project.

N. L. Caperton, chairman of CIF, Inc., told the Council prior to their vote the Foundation board could provide $20,000. The board met in separate session at City Hall before Caperton made the final commitment to the City and before the Council voted. He acknowledged the work of Cong. W. R. Poage on the grant as well as the Mayor's.

HUD's participation in the program was contingent on improving or removal of sub-standard housing in North Cameron, Albritton said.

Nerve Shattering Sonic Boom May Be Sound Of The Future

Notice the quiet? Apparently Milam County has been granted a brief reprieve from the startling and frequent sonic booms.

An inquiry to Bergstrom AFB from The Herald was answered this week by an explanation of the sonic booms. Bergstrom likened the window shaking booms to ordinary conversation in that both are a series of pressure wavelets pulsating against the ear. And both have been known to cause a headache.

The boom heard here is made by Bergstrom based Air Force RF-4C reconnaissance aircraft on practice runs over a route from Waco to Houston. The aircrews in training will soon be flying unarmed aircraft in Southeast Asia and are practicing evasive tactics to be able to survive when an actual attack occurs.

After the training flights, what? The noise annoyance may be just a preview of what can be expected from the supersonic transport planes (SSTs) scheduled to begin commercial traffic in a few years.

The Cambridge, Mass. based Citizens League Against the Sonic Boom paints a gloomy picture for sensitive ear drums. In a telephone conversation this week with Harvard physicist William Shurcliff, a founder of CLASB, he said his group estimated that if the SST is used as much as designers hope, the central United States will be shaken by gigantic sonic booms every 30 minutes night and day.

Shurcliff, who worked on the atomic bomb with Vannevar Bush and is senior research associate at Cambridge Electron Accelerator, said the federal government has invested $500 million in developing the commercial SST with Boeing Aircraft and subcontractors. Another $300 million was rumored to be the request for next year.

Shurcliff said "Funds have gone through with little debate in the past, but congressional reaction is building." He quoted a letter received from Sen. Everett Dirksen (R—Ill.) Monday saying he was against putting any more Federal money into the SST.

Although the Air Force distributes a fact sheet "Learning to Live With the Sonic Boom", many complain they cannot. Oklahoma City was bombarded with eight booms a day for six months in 1964 under FFA testing and Time Magazine, Oct. 6, 1967, reported that one out of four inhabitants said he could not tolerate the noise.

Federal officials believe that if the SST cruises at over 65,000 feet the noise would be muted to a thunderlike rumble. Shurcliff rebuts this. His group contends that a single SST flying at supersonic speed across the U.S. would trail behind it "a bang zone 50 miles wide that could destroy the peace of 20 million Americans."

Shurcliff predicted that competition from cheaper, larger jumbo jets which will produce no sonic boom, could turn the SST venture into a gigantic boondoggle. "American and foreign airlines have provisionally ordered 120 SSTs, but these could be canceled with very little loss to the airlines. To make a profit Boeing hopes to sell 1,200 of the 250-passenger-seat planes."

Although the Air Force says the sonic boom can cause no structural damage to buildings, Shurcliff maintains they received $3.8 million in damage claims from June through August, 1967. He said the League's findings indicated that $200,000 had been paid on claims for that three-month period and the figure would probably total $1 million. The SST would cause a greater boom than the present Air Force planes.

More in question than building damage is human reaction. Although there have been no conclusive findings, a Boston psychiatrist member of CLASB says there is no doubt that it will affect mental health. Shurcliff said the death of a 6 year old boy in Texas had been attributed to fright from a "tremendous sonic boom." Scientists say it is not the noise (roughly 10 times the intensity of a loud thunderclap) but the fact that the sonic boom comes as a bang without warning.

Also in question is the damage the SST might do to the fishing industry since original flights will be transoceanic.

Public reaction? Shurcliff said "we have on file over 6,000 letters from people protesting the sonic boom."

Santa Barbara, California and Dearborn, Michigan city councils have passed ordinances against the sonic boom. Santa Barbara's ordinance declared the sonic boom an unlawful public nusiance with fines up to $500 or 60 days in jail. But few city police departments are equipped to give chase to supersonic culprits in the air.

Until commercial airlines adopt the SST, Milam County residents can take comfort in the Air Force name for the sonic boom, "A new sound of security."

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Posival of Buckholts will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary April 14. Relatives and friends are invited to a reception honoring them from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, April 14. in the Buckholts Brethren Educational Building.

CIF—

Original program was to total about $179,000, Albritton said in discussing the original proposal for sewer and water service to the industrial area.

He emphasized the availability of both services in that part of town would add enough numbers of water and sewer customers to offset much of the city's cost of the program.

In final action the Council also increased the police chief's salary $50 per month.

Present were Councilmen Lester Turner, Starrett Hickman, Lawrence Zotz, Hays and Wells and Mayor Wilson.

STRAWBERRIES & CREAM

What could be better than the first luscious red-ripe strawberries of the season?

Well, maybe the luscious berries served with tempting sweet or whipped cream. Sound mouthwatering? Of course it does, because these two items seem made for each other.

The French are credited with being the first to enjoy this tasty combination. And despite all the new innovations in serving strawberries, strawberries with cream still ranks as a favorite.

Look for strawberries at your favorite market or food store. USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service reports increasing arrivals throughout the area. Most of these are from California, Florida and Mexico, but a few berries are beginning to move out of Louisiana.

Capitalize on the strawberry and cream combination with this Chantilly Angel Cake. Cream and other dairy products are plentiful.

CHANTILLY ANGEL CAKE

1 angel food cake, 1 cup crushed pineapple, drained; 12 marshmallows, diced; ½ tsp vanilla, 2 cups whipping cream, 1 cup coconut, toasted, and 1 pint fresh strawberries, diced and sweetened.

Cut the angel food cake crosswise. Whip cream quite stiff and fold in pineapple, marshmallows, strawberries and vanilla. Spread bottom half of cake with mixed filling. Cover with top half and spread with remaining mixture over top and sides of cake.

Garnish top and sides with coconut. Chill several hours before serving.

STRAWBERRY CUSTARD

Frozen Strawberry Custard offers a delightful flavor and color combination. Select attractive molds for individual strawberry custards. Add strawberries to egg custard, then fold in whipped cream. Turn into the molds and freeze.

HARD—BOILING EGGS

Cold water method: Cover eggs in pan with enough water to come at least one inch above the eggs. Bring rapidly to boiling. Turn off heat and if necessary set pan off unit to prevent further boiling. Cover and let stand in the hot water for 15 minutes. Cool immediately and thoroughly in cold water - this makes the shells easier to remove and helps prevent dark surface on yolks.

To remove the shell, crackle the shell. Roll egg between hands to loosen the shell, then peel. Holding the egg under running cold water or dipping in a bowl of water helps to ease off the shell.

Boiling water method: Place cold eggs in dish of lukewarm water to prevent cracked shells. Bring water in a pan to rapid boiling, using enough wtaer to come one inch above eggs. Transfer eggs from warm water to boiling water with spoon; reduce heat to keep water below simmering and hold for 20 minutes. Cool eggs promptly and thoroughly in cold water for easier shell removal and to prevent dark surfaces on yolks.

SAFETY AWARD — Nelson Davis( left), owner of the Davis Gin Company, Sharp, receives a plaque from T. L. Patton, Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies, for preventing injuries to employees causing loss of time on the job in 1967. The award was presented April 2 at the Texas Cotton Ginners Association annual meeting in Dallas.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them! with BANVEL®

HERBICIDE

Velsicol announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessweed (pigweed), sunflower, lambsquarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray—all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots...for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed.

See your dealer today. You'll be glad you did!

Six Flags Opens Saturday; New Attraction Ready

Six Flags Over Texas opens its 1968 season Saturday, April 13 with a recently completed array of new rides and attractions.

The 140-acre, $16 million historical - theme park, located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, is entering its eighth season.

Included in this year's projects is an entirely new Mexican section, which is dominated by a 60-foot "live" volcano. Visitors aboard the excursion trains will see billowing steam and smoke belching from the top of the volcano, followed by a tremendous explosion. This sets off a stream of lava flowing down towards them as they approach a tunnel through the foot of the mountain.

The ride known as the Log Flume, where visitors race through roaring rapids and splash down a 45-foot slope aboard hollowed-out logs, is probably everyone's favrite, according to surveys. Because of its popularity, Six Flags has added a second Log Flume, so that now 3,400 people per hour may enjoy the ride.

Other projects completed for the 1968 season include new walkways and bridges allowing simple access to and from rides and attractions. An additional 325 tons of air conditioning, both indoor and outdoor, have been installed, boosting Six Flags' cooling system to over 1,000 tons.

Following the opening weekend of April 13 and 14, Six Flags will operate in the Spring on Fridays from 5-11 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. through May 24. During the Summer, beginning May 25, thru Labor Day, the Park is open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The project will be condicted by Scripps Institution of Oceanography, La Jolla, Calif., and is funded by the National Science Foundation.

A specialized drill ship using some of the most sophisticated equipment in the offshore industry will drill between 40 and 60 holes in the floor of the two oceans, beginning in late June. The vessel will work at water depths of 5,000 to 20,000 feet, and will take long cores of ocean floor material to a depth of 2,500 feet into the floor.

Launched in March at Orange, Texas, the drill ship will go out on sea trials on June 15 in the Gulf of Mexico with a full complement of scientists, geologists, drillers and oceanographers on board.

Dr. William A. Nierenberg, Director of Scripps and Principal Investigator for the Deep Sea Drilling Project, said it has been the role of the Joint Oceanographic Institutes Deep Earth Sampling Group (JOIDES), the National Science Foundation and the know-how of industry that has advanced the project to within sight of sea trials.

McLerran is married to the former Inez Smith of Cameron, and they have one daughter, Marilyn, who will be a June graduate from Baylor University. The McLerrans live in La Jolla.

Archie received his high schooling at C. H. Yoe High School in Cameron, and holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering from Texas A&M.

Special acheivements include Registered Professional Engineer in both Texas and Louisiana; member National Committee on Standarization of rotary drilling equipment, American Petroleum Institute, 1949 to 1961, and member Manufacturers Subcommittee on Standardization of rotary drilling equipment, 1956 to 1961.

McLerran has been with the National Science Foundation since 1961. Prior to 1964, he was owner and Principal Engineer for the consulting firm of A. R. McLerran and Associates in Beaumont.

From 1959 until 1960, he was employed by IDELCO Division, Dresser Industries, Beaumont where he served as chief research and development engineer.

McLerran is a son of Mrs. Archie R. McLerran, of Cameron, and his brother-in-law, John A. Smith, Jr., also lives in Cameron.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Bequeathing Your Body

Since time immemorial, men have been making bequests of their money or other worldly possessions. But suddenly, just within the past few years, a new kind of bequest has come into being.

Today a person can bequeath not only his wealth but also various parts of his own body. This has become possible because of a series of scientific breakthroughs. Doctors are now able to transplant, from the dead to the living, everything from eyes to kidneys, from skin to bones.

One result of this development has been to focus attention on the unusual legal problems that are involved.

Offhand is might seem that it should be just as easy, legally, to donate one's body after death as to donate one's blood during life.

But there is a stumbling block. In matters of burial, the law has traditionally given consideration not only to the wishes of the deceased but also to the wishes of his surviving family. And even though the deceased may have wanted to donate all or part of his body, the widow or other relatives might well feel differently about it.

In many states, relatives do have a legal right to say no. The doctor who defies them, removing organs or tissue without their consent, may be exposing himself to a damage suit—and perhaps criminal liability too, for tampering with a dead body.

Even if the rights of relatives are in doubt, the mere delay caused by a dispute may make the whole question academic. For the transplantation of most bodily parts must be done swiftly, within minutes of death, to be successful.

To clear away these difficulties, a special committee has gone to work under the auspices of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. It is drawing up a model statute, to be recommended for adoption by the various state legislatures.

The committee is seeking to insure, to every person willing to be a donor, that his wishes will be carried out. It is seeking to devise a modern mechanism for a new kind of gift—and to transplant it into the body of the law.

Rogers Votes For City Sales Tax

ROGERS

In a double-header election held in Rogers at City Hall under the new election law passed by the last session of the State Legislature, Dean Gommert, Wayne Carwford, and W. A. (Rip) Warren were re-elected to the City Council unopposed.

The city also carried a sales tax election with the election of the councilmen. Mrs. Wray Dunral, Mrs. Reuben Mills, and Mrs. Lloyd Wimberly had charge of the city election.

In the school trustee election in the Rogers Independent School District, incumbents C. O. Gunter, W. W. Ward, and Randolph R. Green were re-elected unopposed, getting all of the 27 votes cast. There have usually been a few write-in votes, but none this year. They will serve three-year terms.

Mrs. Frank Poncik, Mrs. Hulon Farrell, and Mrs. Jordan Aycock held the school election.

DOORS OF YOE

By Jane Callaway

April 1, April Fool's Day—Yoe High was well aware of the date.

Our School has been busy with District Interscholastic League and Track Meet at Blinn Colege in Brenham. We placed second in the 17-AA track meet—thanks to Mike Miller, Kenneth McLerran, Gary Curtis, Wayne Kirk, Glenn Fogle, Robert Wernette, and Paul Chandler. All of these advanced to regional. Our support follows them as far as they go!

We had winners for the scholastic events also. Joshua Martinez, Gay Chancey, John Ben Sutter, Bette Whitley, Carol Lucko, Becky Griffin, Kathryn Kahler, Jeanie McDaniel, Monty Humble, Ronnie Richardson, Sara Arthur, Linda Fleming, Ann Arthur, Mahalia Petty, Eugene Moraw, Dwight Jekel, Richard Anderson—we don't know about our shorthand team (I'm writing this on Sunday to meet a Monday deadline).

JOIN THE BAND — As contest time nears, we go on band trips—we played at Academy last week. It was a little hot in our wool uniforms, but we had fun! How about a summer uniform fund??? We go to Lott next week, then in about two weeks we go to the contest. Wish us luck!

Cars just won't run without gas, will they, Patricia?

Sounds good—a holiday and culture too. Students who want to see a display of Oriental art will be excused at 3:15 Wednesday, April 17, to attend the Friends of the Library program at Cameron Public Library. Sign up at the office. Rides are available if you need one.

The Royal Blue Band from Lubbock Christian College came this week with a real good program. They had lots of variety and we all liked the way they played.

Measles! Measles! Measles! How long since you had the disease? Seems like you can have this kind over and over. I'm waiting—"they" are all around me one day—sick the next! Mrs. McIntosh, we are looking for you to be back soon.

Cathy was here last weekend—came down with Steve. Come again soon.

Will McIntosh, Barbara Jo Hickman, and Ray Rylander brought honors back from the Regional Science Fair in Waco.

Let me be serious. Many people are interested in our work and give us their support. It's not easy (maybe it is for you), but with encouragement and help from our parents and teachers and other adults, we can meet any real challenge that comes our way and go on to useful pursuits.

QUOTE: If you don't play to win, why keep score?

Be here next week.

DIPLOMATIC POUCH

WASHINGTON D.C. The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State.

Origin of South Vietnam

Will you kindly explain just when the "Republic of South Vietnam" became an independent nation?

I have just finished reading a book "Toward Peace in Indo-China" by Anthony Eden, who was present at the 1954 Geneva Conference, in which he sets down the entire text of that agreement. Nowhere in that agreement is any independent South Vietnam conceived or agreed upon. Instead, unity and general elections including both North and South, are set forth.

I notice in the State Department literature that they state "armed attack" as the basis for your destruction there. Will you pl3ase explain if "armed attack" against an illegal nation is a legal basis?

R.R.R.
Pittsburgh, Penna.

Dear Mrs. R.:

The 1954 Geneva Accords established both South and North Vietnam as international entities with independent international status. The Accords temporarily divided Vietnam into two zones, each to be administered by its respective authorities until the unification of the country. Foreign nations have recognized this separate and distin to status by establishing diplomatic relations with Saigon or Hanoi or both.

The provisional military demarcation line drawn by the Accords, although not a political or territorial boundary, is an international frontier that under international law must be respected. To this extent the division of Vietnam is similar to that of Germany or Korea. It is selfevident that if a state is divided by an internationally recognized demarcation line, the two parts of that state must refrain from attacks or hostile acts against each other. Thus, an attack by North Korea on South Korea or by East Germany on West Germany would be illegal. Such actions are no less "aggression" or "armed attack" by one state against another.

Montenegro

We would be most appreciative for any assistance which you could give us in locating His Royal Highness Prince Mirko of Montenegro, Head of the House of Petrovich - Njegosh, claimant to the throne of Montenegro.

R.J.D.
North Andover, Mass.

Dear Mr. D.:

On the basis of an informal inquiry we have learned that Prince Michel d'Montenegro resides at 28 Place Denfert - Rochereau, Paris 14, France.

We understand that Prince Michel (or Mihailo, as his name is in Serbian) is the senior member of the Petrovich - Njegosh family. We understand also that Prince Michel refused Mussolini's offer of the throne of Montenegro during the Second World War when, as part of the Axis policy to dismember Yugoslavia, an attempt was made to reestablish Montenegro as a separate unit. We mention this because, in some books Prince Mirko is named as the man who refused Mussolini's offer of the throne. This confusion may result from the fact that Prince Michel's father was Prince Mirko who in turnu was a son of King Nikola of Montenegr.

Furthermre, Prince Michel has a son named Prince Nikola. Prince Michel was born in 1908. Prince Michel's father, Prince Mirko, died in Austria after the First World War.

Do you have an inquiry? Send it to: "The Diplomatic Pouch" P—MS, Room 4835, US Department of State, Washington D.C. 20520.

School Menu—

HALLELUJAH

Eddie was the smallest one in the choir today. He stood at the end of the front row, stretched tall as he could, and sang with his whole heart.

I looked up at his round freckled boy-face and wondered what he was thinking as the Easter anthem rose in crescendo and blessed the April air. Were his thoughts on chocolate bunnies and rainbow-colored eggs, or on the stirring story he was singing—"He is not here, but is risen"?

Of one thing I am certain. When he is grown and thinks of Eastertime back home, it won't be the candy eggs and Easter baskets he'll remember; but the smell of lilies at the chancel rail, the joy of joining his voice to a Hallelujah chorus.

Give your child a lifetime gift. Celebrate special Sundays and every Sunday by going to your church and taking him with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
. . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read you Bible daily.

IRS Questions

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — My buddy says you can deduct all your medical insurance premiums this year and I say only half of them can be deducted. Who's right?

A— In a way, you both are. Premiums paid for medical insurance have always been deductible as a medical expense by taxpayers who itemize their deductions.

For 1967 however, one half of these premiums up to $150 may be deducted without regard to the requirement that medical expenses be reduced by three percent of the taxpayer's income.

In effect, the new rule on medical insurance premiums allows a deduction for part of these premiums even when the taxpayer's other medical expenses don't exceed three percent of his income Any excess premiums are included with other medical expenses. The 1040 instructions explain this in detail.

Q — I'm expecting a refund but don't have one of the envelopes you're supposed to use to mail the return. What should I do?

A — Mail your return to the Internal Revenue Service Center for your area. You can obtain the exact address by checking page 10 of the 1040 instructions or by calling the local (Temple) Internal Revenue office.

Q — Are membership fees in a charitable organization like the YMCA deductible as a contribution?

A — No, dues, membership fees and assessments paid to a charitable organization are not deductible if you receive benefits and privileges in return. However, you may deduct any gift you make to a qualified organization.

Q — I've been supporting my mother since she retired last fall. Can I claim her as a dependent?

A — If your mother had gross income of $600 or more last year, you cannot claim her as a dependent. Check the 1040 instructions for full details on the dependency tests.

Q — My losses from stock transactions were greater than my gains last year. Can I carry over my unused capital losses from 1967 to offset 1968 profits?

A — Yes. Unused capital losses may be carried over from year to year until they are used up.

Q — I read where a retired person is entitled to a credit against his tax. Is that right?

A — There is a provision in the law which permits retired persons to reduce their income tax by up to 15 percent of their "retirement income." This provision is explained on Schedule R, Form 1040. Copies are available at many banks, post offices and local IRS ofices.

Q — I had to hire someone last year to take care of the children while my wife was recovering from an operation. Can I deduct what I paid her?

A — You may be able to take a child-care deduction if your wife's illness incapacitated her for 90 days or more. There are limitations, however. Page 9 of the 1040 instructions explains this provision in detail.

Q — My bank sent me a statement on the interest I earned last year on my savings account. Should I send this in with my return?

A — No, interest or dividend statements do not have to be filed with your tax return.

Q — I got married last year. Do I need another Social Security number since my name changed?

A — No, continue to use your same number but notify the Social Security Administration that your name has changed so they can bring their records up to date.

Don't forget to put your number accurately on any tax return you file. Failure to do so delays refunds for many taxpayers each year.

Q — I held two jobs last year, and too much was whthheld for Social Security. How do I get it back?

A — If more than $290.40 was withheld for Social Security in 1967 because you had two or more employers, you may take a credit for the overpayment against your income tax. Enter the overpayment on line 18 of Page 1 of Form 1040.

Q —Is the Federal tax I pay on my monthly phone bill deductible?

A — No. Federal excise taxes are not deductible.

Q — Are special assessments or service charges paid by homeowners deductible?

A — Local assessments for sidewalks or other additions that improve the value of your property are generally not deductible. Water bills and similar service charges are not deductible either.

Q — My son is stationed in Vietnam with the Marines. What do we do about his tax return?

A — Military personnel in a Combat Zone do not have to file tax returns while stationed there. They may wait to file a 1967 tax return until 180 days after leaving Vietnam.

Odd Names Not Good For Child, Studies Reveal

COLLEGE STATION

What's in a name? Plenty, says Jennie Kitching, Extension specialist in family life education. A Percival or an Alfreda by any other name may have an easier time in life.

Names are more significant than most people realize, according to a recent study by Barbara Buchanan of Penn State and James Burning of Ohio University. The Texas A&M University specialist says a child tends to identify with his name and may react according to whether his companions approve or disapprove.

Michael, James and Wendy were found to be relatively high in approval value, while Alfreda, Percival and Horace rated low.

A boy with what used to be called a sissy name may have to overcome a name which is disliked by both sexes, a name which connotes low masculinity or a name whose owner is expected to be passive, Miss Kitching says.

A child with a name which rates high in approval by both men and women, such as Michael, starts out with a name considered masculine and one which connotes activity.

Researchers have found that children with peculiar names are more likely to suffer emotional disturbances than children having ordinary names. Boys show a higher rate of disturbance than girls, according to the specialist.

For girls, flower names, such as Pansy, Lilly or Rose, were popular once but now are considered old fashioned by both sexes. Other feminine names not too popular currently include Hildegarde, Beulah, Mathilde and Alfreda.

Men like such girls' names as Susanne, Linda, Dawn, Annette, Sherry, and Patty. Women like Yvette, Tammy, Kim, Lisa, Karen, Yvonne and Katherine.

Range Grasses Can Survive More Than 20 Days Of Flooding

COLLEGE STATION

Bermudagrass, vine - mesquite, buffalograss and knotgrass can survive more than 20 days of flooding, according to a United States Department of Agriculture agricultural engineer.

E. D. Rhoades, working at the Oklahoma Agricultural Experiment Station at Chickasha, said these flood - tolerant varieties are suitable for planting in detention reservoirs.

Hundreds of retention dams have been built on upstream tributaries of United States rivers in recent years, and the acreage flooded at times is considerable.

The reservoirs store excess runoff water during flood seasons; at other times they are used for grazing livestock.

B. J. Ragsdale, Extension range specialist, said the engineer built six impoundment basins that simulated field conditions. Grasses in basins were established and flooded with water from five to 20 days at depths of up to six feet.

Tests were run in early spring, midspring, and late spring to correspond to normal flood seasons, Ragsdale said.

Varieties which survived up to 20 days of flooding were Kanlow switchgrass, lowland switchgrass, Reed canarygrass, prairie cordgrass, and Florida paspalum.

Caddo switchgrass, rice cutgrass, upland switchgrass, western wheatgrass, and smooth seed paspalum survived 15 days of flooding while big bluestem, sand bluestem, Virginia wildrye, and beaked panicum survived for 10 days.

Varieties that survived up to five days of flooding were eastern gamagrass, alkali sacaton, Elkan bluestem, KR bluestem, weeping lovegrass, Kentucky fescue, Indian grass, smooth brome, and knotroot bristlegrass.

The Soil Conservation Service and the Oklahoma Agricultural Experiment Station cooperated in the tests at the Southern Plains Watershed Research Center, Chickasha, Okla.

Rockdale added that since many retention dams have been constructed in Texas, landowners who have such on their property or have land subject to flooding should consider establishing stands of the flood-tolerant grasses.

Tornado Safety Rules Reviewed

Last year, Texas led the nation in tornadoes with an all time record of 232. The tornado season is here, and knowledge of what to do if a tornado approaches may mean the difference between life and death for you and your family.

A circular published by the Texas Department of Public Safety outlines the basic rules of tornado safety:

If you are near a tornado cellar: When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel.

If you are in open country, move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

If in a city or town, seek inside shelter, preferably a strongly reinforced building. Stay away from windows! In homes, the corner of the basement toward the tornado usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements can sometimes be protected by taking cover under heavy furniture against inside walls. Doors and windows on the sides of the house away from the tornado may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

If in schools, in city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. Avoid auditoriums and gyms with large, poorly supported roofs. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

Emergency Loans Aid County Farmers

Emergency loans totaling $189,680 have been made by the Milam County office of the Farmers Home Administration since July 1, 1967, to help local farmers and ranchers recover from natural disasters, Henry N. Ivey, county supervisor reported today.

Ivey said Milam County was designated by Secretary of Agriculture Freeman as an area in which emergency loans could be made by the FHA to eligible farmers and ranchers because of the recent drought conditions in the county during the summer and winter of 1967.

GERANIUMS FOR COLOR

Geraniums are excellent plants for mass effects in the landscape. They may be planted any time after the night temperature remains above 50 degrees F, says E. E. Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist. They should do well in any well-drained soil with several inches of coarse peat moss and 2 to 3 pounds of a balanced fertilizer per 100 square feet should be worked into the moss and soil to a depth of 6 inches.

Payment rates on 1967 marketings of wool and mohair have been announced. Shorn wool payments will be made at the rate of 65.8 percent of the dollar returns each grower received from the sale of shorn wool marketed during 1967. Mohair growers will receive payments at the rate of 86.8 percent.

These payments to producers for wool and mohair marketed in 1967 are intended to save sheep and goat raisers from financial ruin and enable them to stay in business. Payments are estimated to total nearly $70 million, the highest in 10 years and over double the amount of payments made last year on 1966 marketings.

Payment rate for wool is based on the difference between the incentive price of 66 cents and the national average price of 39.8 cents received by growers. By comparison, payments on 1966 marketings were made at the rate of 24.8 percent.

Each grower's wool payment is determined by multiplying his dollar return from the sale of wool (less marketing charges) by the payment rate of 65.8 percent. The percentage method of payment is designed to encourage growers to improve the quality and marketing of their wool. Under this method, the grower who gets the best possible price for his wool also gets a higher incentive payment.

USDA also announced a payment rate of $1.05 a hundred weight on unshorn lambs sold or slaughtered during the 1967 marketing year. This compares to the 1966 rate of 52 cents per cwt. The payment on sales of live lambs that have never been shorn is based on the payment rate for shorn wool, average weight of wool per hundred weight of lambs, and value of lamb's wool relative to the value of shorn wool.

The mohair payment rate is based on the difference between the support price of 76.4 cents and the average price of 40.9 cents a pound received by growers. Payments on 1966 mohair marketings were at the rate of 41.2 percent of dollar returns.

Deductions of 1.5 cents a pound from shorn wool and mohair payments and 7.5 cents per hundred pounds of live weight from lamb payments will be made for advertising, promotion, and related market development activities on wool, lamb, and mohair.

The county office will begin making payments sometime in April.

The 1968 incentive price for wool (announced June 29, 1966) is 67 cents a pound, 1 cent higher than the support price for 1967. The 1968 support price for mohair is 77.4 cents a pound, also a cent higher.

Payments on wool and mohair are authorized by the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965, which if not extended, will expire at the end of 1969.

Bermudagrass Weed Control

By J. D. Moore

Karmex has now been approved for use in newly sprigged bermudagrass as a premerge and postmerge treatment. This material has been tested for a number of years at the Tyler station. It has been reported to give equal results to Simazine as a premerge treatment when applied with a surfactant. The soil type at the Tyler station is a fine sandy loam.

Apply 0.8 to 2 pounds of active ingredient per acre after sprigs are planted and before emergence of the bermudagrass or weeds. Use the lower rate on light soils and the higher rates on heavy clay soils. If moisture is not sufficient to activate the herbicide, a shallow rotary hoeing should be made before weeds come up.

For control of seedling annual weeds after weed emergnce and up to 4 inchs in height, apply 0.4 to 0.8 pound of active ingredient of Karmex per acre. Add a surfactant at the rate of 1 pint to 25 gallons of spray mixture. Use the lower rate on weeds up to 2 inches tall and the higher rate on weeds up to 4 inches tall.

Simazine as premerge. Demonstra-

Note: If bermudagrass has emerged at time of treatment, temporary burn of exposed plant parts may occur.

Apply Karmex as a broadcast treatment with a properly calibrated boom sprayer, using enough water, 20 to 30 gallons per acre, to get uniform coverage. Avoid overlapping, and shut off spray boom while starting, turning, slowing or stopping, as injury to grass may result. As with Simazine, continuous agitation is required to keep the material in suspension.

Do not graze treated fields or feed forage to livestock within 70 days after application. Read label and instructions carefully before using.

The county agent has demonstrations on newly sprigged, as well as established grass using Simayine as premerge. Demonstrations using Karmex will be put out. Those interested in visiting these tests may contact the county agent.

Patience, Means For America

Upon the assassination of Martin Luther King, we recall the story of the combat death of Marine Lance Cpl. Billy J. Holt, of Cameron, on May 29, 1966.

Cpl. Holt is the first, and as far as we know, the only Milam County fatality of the Vietnam War.

He was a Negro.

Other Milam County servicemen have been wounded.

Dr. King's articulate sermons and pronouncements have been quoted and replayed and interpreted numberless times since last Thursday night in Memphis.

One phrase sticks, among the many. Dr. King, the moderate, the non-violence advocate, once said: "I would rather think I am a Negro American, rather than an American Negro."

Cpl. Holt may or may not have agreed. But he died in an American cause. And Dr. King, protest and all, died for an American dream, of which Cpl. Holt's duty was a part.

Any aftermath is academic. Whether Nobel Laureate or Marine corporal, the Negro American is part of America. And the timetable of his aspirations is damaged by what a small, lawless minority does to American cities.

Dr. King attacked U.S. involvement in Vietnam for the economic and social drain he said should be directed into city ghettos. Cpl. Holt died in Vietnam.

This has to mean something.

Perhaps it means Americans can muster the patience AND the means to justify all our losses in Vietnam and the cities, if, storng, but weakened the American fabric keeps its historic weave.

Cancer Crusade Workers Launch Educational-Fund Raising Drive

April is National Cancer Control Month and the Milam County Unit of the American Cancer Society is preparing to launch its 1968 educational and fund-raising crusade.

Volunteer workers are asked to meet with John Hays, North Milam campaign chairman, at 7 p.m., Monday, April 15, at the Cameron Chamber of Commerce office.

"Plans for the All-out April Crusade," Mr. Hays explained, "include nnationwide distribution of 40 million leaflets listing the seven warning signals of cancer. Every family in Cameron will receive this leaflet, most of them to be distributed in person by Cancer Society volunteer workers during April."

"The volunteers also have other vital information that if followed can extend or save lives," Hays said. "A survey card is provided that is valuable in the cause of research, and it is also an opportunity for the citizens to support the program of the ACS," he added.

The Milam Unit operates a loan service whereby such items as dressings, equipment, and sick-room supplies for the comfort of cancer patients are provided. Five cancer patients in Milam County are receiving these services from the Cancer Society now.

Cancer will eventually strike some 50 million Americans now living. Hays urged all local area citizens to acquaint themselves with cancer's seven warning signals and to seek medical attention as promptly as possible after a signal has been detected. One in three is saved from cancer today.

President's Decision Makes Precinct Conventions 'Hot'

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

President Lyndon B. Johnson's decision to step aside is turning the May 4 Democratic precinct conventions from the previous label of "dull" to a new one of "hotly contested."

Gov. John Connally, who had been slated to be the Texas delegation chairman in support of President Johnson, with little objection from anyone, now has a fight on his hands.

Connally's forces launched a favorite son candidacy for Connally at a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee. Senator Ralph Yarborough objected, and appeared close to a decision to challenge Connally in the county conventions.

At first, the Connally candidacy seemed to be leaning toward Vice President Hubert Humphrey, but Connally wiped that out by saying he would not be a stand-in for anyone.

By contrast, Republican conventions on May 4 seem more peacefully inclined. The state Republican organization is united behind Senator John Tower's favorite son candidacy. However, a challenge may be posed by a group trying to win delegates for Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

County conventions on May 11 and state conventions on June 11 will follow, but the grass-roots decisions will be made in the more than 5,000 precincts in Texas on May 4.

"ONE MAN, ONE VOTE"

U.S. Supreme Court predictably has extended the one-man-one-vote theory to local governments.

Like legislative bodies, Court said, wherever city, county or other governmental units elect representatives from single-member districts, the districts must be substantially equal.

Ruling was on a case brought by Midland Mayor Hank Avery to force Midland County Commissioners Court to reapportion. Dissenting opinion warned of "avalanche of reapportionment cases."

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has predicted the ruling will not disturb local elections already in progress this year, and indicted he feels the problems of unequal representation will be worked out by Texas subdivisions without multiple court suits.

Prior studies have demonstrated, however, that the vast bulk of county commissioners' precincts would be affected by the new ruling. To assume that all will voluntarily correct deficiencies pointed up by the high court appears to be expecting too much of local officials, many of whom will have jobs at stake.

COURTS SPEAK

Texas Supreme Court reversed an Alice case in which a woman claimed doctors and a hospital were liable for assault and battery damages for operating on her without her consent. High court ordered a trial to determine if physicians were given adequate consent.

In other recent actions, state's highest court:

—Held that the legislature had authority to remove requirement of an election before major counties can make special, higher levy tax assessments on property in hospital districts to support medical school teaching hospitals.

—Shook up lower court rulings in a case involving royalties on an oil and gas lease covering 1,500 acres in Zapata County.

—Refused to review the case in which a man received $1,000 damage award after a Bellville surgeon left a sponge inside him after an operation.

—Agreed with an intermediate court that Coca Cola company was not responsible for a woman's cutting her finger on a chipped Coke bottle.

NEW TAX BILL FORECAST

Texas Research League, which has made detailed studies of state government problems, has come up with a new estimate that the 1968 tax bill must be in the $123-$130 million range.

TRL noted that the comptroller's estimate of revenue available for next fiscal year has increased $93 million since last April.

Sources indicate the league's estimate is close to that of Governor Connally's own budget staff. Connally already has tentatively okayed both a tax bill and a 1969 budget recommendation, aides indicate.

TORNADO SEASON NEARS

With the tornado season approaching, department of Public Safety has prepared a circular of tornado safety rules. In general, DPS advises: seek safety in a strongly reinforced building, preferably in a basement; stay away from windows; if out doors when the twister hits, lie flat in the nearest depression, ditch or ravine.

Last year Texas led the nation with all time record of 232 reported twisters.

SPECIAL ELECTIONS CALLED

Gov. Connally has set special legislative elections for May 14 in Harris County, Dallas County, and Brooks, Cameron, Kenedy and Willacy Counties.

Houston voters will pick a successor to Rep. Glenn Vickery who resigned. Brooks, Cameron, Kenedy and Willacy county voters will replace Rep. Bill Rapp of Raymondville who resigned to accept an appointment as Willacy County Judge. Dallas voters must choose a successor to the late Rep. John Field.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

Texas Research League has agreed to conduct and finance a study for a law enforcement and criminal justice program design for 10-county Dallas - Fort Worth region of North Central Texas.

North Central Texas Council of Governments is among 12 regional agencies in the nation which received a request from the Department of Housing and Urban Development and Department of Justice to undertake a pilot program design for comprehensive law enforcement planning.

One of first such studies in the U.S., it is expected to serve as a model for other areas. Design will show what a law enforcement plan should include, how it should be prepared and what it will cost.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editar:

There have been so many surprises in politics lately, topped by President Johnson's decision not to run again, that there simply can't be anymore left, outside maybe of Bobby Kennedy's showing up with a crew cut and DeGaulle's offering to pay France's World War I debts.

The worst thing about these surprises though is what it does to newspaper columnists. I got hold of a bunch of old newspapers last night and began reading them in the light of what has happened a few weeks after they were published, and they're confusing.

For example when Rockefeller thwarted the experts and said he wasn't running, the columnists were caught flat-footed. "Political analysts had thought he certainly was going to run," one of them wrote, not mentioning he was one of the analysts.

Another one wrote only two weeks ago: "Anybody who knows Lyndon Johnson knows he's not going to give up four more years of power."

When Eugene McCarthy first announced he was running, another columnist said bemusedly "he is like Emmett Kelly, the clown, trying to sweep up his own spotlight."

And so it went, proving that this is where television has an advantage over newspapers for experts. An expert can be 100 percent wrong and almost swallow his foot on T.V., but when the program changes, his words fade with the picture and it's hard to pin anything on him.

But with a newspaper it's different. There the words are, in black and white, and you can clip them out and carry them around and examine them after events have shown the expert didn't know anymore about what was going on inside the mind of the President for example than he did next week's weather.

Consequently I have worked out a solution. Newspapers carrying columns by political experts ought to be printed in disappearing ink. Twenty-four hours after their profound and analytical opinions have appeared, the ink ought to fade like a television picture with a burned-out tube.

This of course does not apply to The Cameron Herald. Not as long as I'm in it.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.
